Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Preparation for Worship-Let us join together now and prepare for worship.

Dear Family of God – these are trying days in God’s beloved world. As Christ’s Church, sustained by the Holy Spirit, we have gifts and a call by which to care for one another and our neighbors. Worship in which we encounter our living God and know ourselves connected to the body continues. So this day we expand our worship into our homes, knowing that as we read the same Scriptures, and share in the same prayers, we are held together on this Sunday morning. Let us prepare our hearts and minds to worship the living Lord.

Prelude “You are Holy, Prince of Peace”

Call to Worship

Let us worship the One who nourishes us, who satisfies us in parched places and makes our bones strong.
Let us worship the One who calls us,
who leads us to compassion and draws us nearer to justice.
Let us worship the One who creates us,
who forms and reforms us in the image of our maker.

Hymn #817 “We Walk by Faith and Not by Sight” Dunlap’s Creek
Julie Pearson, Soprano

1 We walk by faith and not by sight;
with gracious words draw near,
O Christ, who spoke as none e'er spoke:
“My peace be with you here.”

2 We may not touch your hands and side,
nor follow where you trod;
but in your promise we rejoice
and cry, "My Lord and God!"

3 Help then, O Lord, our unbelief;
and may our faith abound to call on you when you are near and seek where you are found.

4 And when our life of faith is done,
in realms of clearer light
may we behold you as you are,
with full and endless sight.

Prayer of the Day

God of mercy; Help us to forgive, as you have forgiven us. Help us to trust you, even when hope is failing. Help us to take up our cross daily and follow you in your redeeming work; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen

Prayer of Confession

You are faithful, O God of mercy, from everlasting to everlasting.
Forgive us when our faith withers, our passion grows weary, and our focus wanes.
You are loving, O God of mercy, from everlasting to everlasting.
Forgive us when our love is too shallow, our compassion too slow, our status too important.
You are the creator, O God of mercy, from everlasting to everlasting.
Forgive us when we fear that you have stopped creating, stopped calling, stopped reforming.
Convict us, enliven us, and lead us to know the depth of your steadfast love.
(Silence for Reflection)

Declaration of Forgiveness

The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting.
I declare to you, in the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.
May the God of mercy, who forgives us all our sins, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Gloria Patri (Hymn #581)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

Congregational Response (Hymn #306)

Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love.

The fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above.

Postlude

“O God, Who Gives Us Life”
