LIGHT by Rev. Sarah Are

*In Italian, the phrase, "to give birth"
Literally means, "to bring into the light."
A mother will labor for hours and days,
Breaking herself for you,
Whispering between fractured breaths,
"This is my body, broken for you."
A mother will do this as long as it takes
So that you, her beloved,
Have a chance at life.
So that you, her beloved,
Can feel the warmth of the light.
And after all that pain,
The sun will rise.
The doctor will put a baby on her chest.
The mother will hold her child as if
Letting go is indeed physically impossible.
She will breathe easy,
And then she will whisper softly,*

*"All this time,
All these deep breaths...
It was love, again and again and again."
It is childbirth,
But it is also resurrection.
A body broken.
Breath fractured.
A long night.
A sunrise.
Breath returned.
New life,
And a love that won't let go.
Friends, maybe Easter is just God whispering,
"All this time,
All these deep breaths...
It's been love, again and again and again."
I think we've been standing in the light all this time.
Now that I think of it, isn't it warm?*

Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship**

One: The story of faith is a story of courage.

All: It took courage for John the Baptist to prepare the way.

One: It took courage for Mary to say, "Here I am. Use me."

All: It took courage for the disciples to drop their nets and follow Jesus.

One: It took courage for the paralyzed man's friends to lower him through the roof.

All: It took courage for Peter to walk on water.

One: It took courage for Zacchaeus to give half of his possessions to the poor.

All: It took courage for Jesus to enter Jerusalem on a donkey.

One: Faith has never been easy. It is a journey of courage.

All: Again and again, God, show us the way.

One: Let us worship a brave and courageous God.

Prayer of Confession**

God of palm branches and hallelujahs:

We confess—we love a good Palm Sunday celebration.

We love the sound of a joyful parade. We love shouting, "hallelujah!"

We love that Palm Sunday means Easter is just around the corner. We love good news.

However, if we slow down and pay attention,

We know that Palm Sunday was not a walk in the park for you.

There was risk. There was fear. There was the threat of violence.

You were leading a peaceful protest against an unjust empire, and the whole world knew it.

Forgive us for glossing over the courage this day took. Remind us that the story of faith is a story of courage, and even we can do hard things. With hope we pray. Amen.

Declaration of Forgiveness

The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting. I declare to you, in the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven. May the God of mercy, who forgives us all our sins, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Faith Formation Moment

Affirmation of Faith**

I refuse to believe that I am powerless. I refuse to believe that injustice and hatred are simply the way it has to be. I refuse to believe that I am better or more deserving than my neighbor. I refuse to believe that my self-worth is rooted in my accomplishments or appearance. I refuse to believe that the Church is dying, because I see God all around me. I refuse to believe that the traditions of old are the only path for moving forward. I refuse to believe that I cannot make a difference. So with hope in my heart, I will strive to live a life of courage, conviction, and compassion, just as Jesus taught us. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Eternal God, holy and faithful, what can we give in return for our life? Teach us to take up the cross of Christ with grateful hearts and humble spirits, offering all for the sake of the gospel, so that we may receive life in fullness; through Christ, who is coming in glory and who taught us when we prayer to say:

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Responsive Reading

Psalms 31: 9-16

<sup>9</sup> Be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am in distress; my eye wastes away from grief, my soul and body also.

<sup>10</sup> For my life is spent with sorrow, and my years with sighing; my strength fails because of my misery, and my bones waste away.

<sup>11</sup> I am the scorn of all my adversaries, a horror to my neighbors, an object of dread to my acquaintances; those who see me in the street flee from me.

<sup>12</sup> I have passed out of mind like one who is dead; I have become like a broken vessel.

<sup>13</sup> For I hear the whispering of many—terror all around!—as they scheme together against me, as they plot to take my life.

<sup>14</sup> But I trust in you, O LORD; I say, "You are my God."

<sup>15</sup> My times are in your hand; deliver me from the hand of my enemies and persecutors.

<sup>16</sup> Let your face shine upon your servant; save me in your steadfast love.

Prayer of Illumination**

If we could buy our way closer to you, we'd sell everything we have. If we could work our way to you, we'd never take a day off. If we could walk our way to you, we'd keep our tennis shoes on tight. But I know—we know—we cannot buy, or work, or walk our way closer to you. We must listen our way closer to you. So holy God, as you have so often done again and again, open our ears. Clear out the self-talk that keeps us from you. Dust out the negativity and distractions. Remove any doubt hindering our way. Amen.

Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship**

One: Do you remember your last supper before the pandemic?

The last meal you had out at a restaurant with friends?

The last meal before fear and anxiety ran the conversation?

If you had known it was your last, would you have lingered?

Would you have ordered dessert? Would you have held your friends' hands and told them how much you loved them?

If you had known, would you have washed their feet?

Tonight we gather together, because this night was the beginning of the end.

This night was Jesus' last supper with his disciples. Take a moment to imagine how Jesus must have felt.

Friends, with all of this in mind, I invite you to join me in our opening words:

All: Tonight we will hear, again and again, of a love that knows no bounds.

May we be fully present here. May we worship holy God.

Musical Interlude #228

"Were You There"

arr. Che

Prayer of Confession**

Holy God who holds us together, if I were to place myself at your table, I would probably be Peter—Misunderstanding your radical hospitality, sticking to the rules, arguing what I do and don't deserve.
Then again, it's possible that I'd be Judas—The one who betrayed you, the one who failed to see the good right in front of him, the one who might have thought he wasn't worthy of your love.
If I were to place myself at your table, it's possible I would be one of the unnamed disciples—
Watching, but not speaking, silently missing the opportunity to tell you what I believe and how much I love you. If I were to place myself at your table, I am confident that I would have made the same mistakes your well-intentioned disciples made. There is no surprise there. What is surprising is that I know you would have washed my feet nonetheless. So forgive me, God. Wash not just my feet, but my hands and my head also. Amen.

Declaration of Forgiveness

The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting. I declare to you, in the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven. May the God of mercy, who forgives us all our sins, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Prayer of Illumination**

Jesus of Nazareth,

If the disciples had known that the last supper would be their last meal with you before the crucifixion, I bet they would have listened differently. I bet they would have put down their arguments, and leaned in with their whole bodies. I bet they would have asked questions and halted the small talk. I bet they would have taken notes and hung on your every word.

Jesus of Nazareth, I want to listen like that. I want to listen like tonight might be the last time you speak.

I want to listen like everything could change tomorrow. I want to listen like my soul depends on it.

So gracious God, clear away anything in me that might distract. Clear away anything in me that might hinder my hearing and receiving of your word. I am listening. We are listening. With hope and honesty we pray. Amen.

Sacrament of the Lord's Supper

Invitation to the Lord's Supper

We invite you now to spiritually unite with all the members and friends of Trinity Presbyterian Church and with all the saints of the church in heaven and on earth, and partake of the Lord's Supper. We invite you to prepare your own elements of bread and juice at home. According to Luke, when our risen Lord was at table with his disciples, he took bread and blessed it and broke it and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him.

Communion Prayer

Holy God, we praise you. Let the heavens be joyful, and the earth be glad. We bless you for creating the whole world, for your promises to your people Israel, and for Jesus Christ in whom your fullness dwells. Born of Mary, he shares our life. Eating with sinners, he welcomes us. Guiding his children, he leads us. Visiting the sick, he heals us. Dying on the cross, he saves us. Risen from the dead, he gives new life. Living with you, he prays for us. With thanksgiving we take this bread and this cup and proclaim the death and resurrection of our Lord. Receive our sacrifice of praise. Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us that this meal may be a communion in the body and blood of our Lord. Make us one with Christ and with all who share this feast. Unite us in faith, encourage us with hope, inspire us to love, that we may serve as your faithful disciples until we feast at your table in glory. We praise you, eternal God, through Christ your Word made flesh, in the holy and life-giving Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Sharing the Bread

This is the body of Christ, the bread of life—given for you. Amen.

Sharing the Cup

This is the blood of Christ, the cup of salvation—shed for you. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Let us pray: We thank you, O God, that through Word and Sacrament you have given us your Son, who is the true bread from heaven and food of eternal life. We lift up to you, this day, the joys and concerns of our hearts. Strengthen us in your service that our daily living may show our thanks, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

*Affirmation of Faith***

We are each a tapestry of stories. We are our stories of fear and grief, as well as our stories of love and joy. We believe that God sees all of these interwoven truths and says to our fragile selves:

"Come in. Come in from the cold, come in from the rain, come in from wherever you are, And be here tonight."

We believe that God then pours warm water into a basin to wash off the weariness of the day, the bruises of the past, and the doubt that clings to us. We believe that this act is an act of love.

Similarly, we believe that God says to us: "Eat." And God shares of God's self, and it is food not only for our bodies, but for our souls. We believe that all this happens every time we close our eyes and imagine God, and every time we close our eyes and imagine God, we believe the parts of our tapestry that feel worn and frayed are held together. So today, we remember. Today we say thank you. Today, we know—we are held together.

*Charge and Benediction***

"Again & Again, A Lenten Refrain"

As you leave this space, may your mouth speak of God's goodness. May your arms hold those in need. May your feet walk toward justice. May your heart trust its worth. May your soul dance in God's grace.

And may this be your rhythm—again and again and again, Until God's promised day. In the name of the Lover, the Beloved, and Love itself, go with courage, go with heart, go in peace. Amen.

*Call to Worship***

One: We have been here before—

All: A place of grieving and mourning.

One: We have been here before—

All: A night that seems it won't end.

One: We have been here before—

All: Knee deep in fear, knee deep in doubt.

One: We have been here before—

All: Good Friday, the night Christ died.

One: So once again, we find ourselves here—

All: In community, in God's arms.

One: Where else would we go when the world falls apart? Let us worship holy God.

Prayer of Confession**

Holy God,

We admit that we struggle with this day. We struggle with Good Friday for three reasons.

First, no one likes to see another suffer. On this day we are face to face with the cross, and your suffering is hard for us to bear. Second, the pain of this day reminds us of the pain of past and present days, And our own pain is hard for us to bear. Third, we are reminded of the suffering we cast onto others, which means we have to confront the pain we have caused you. So forgive us for skirting around the edges of this day. Forgive us for averting our eyes and avoiding the sinking feeling in our chests. Forgive us for distracting ourselves from the hurt, and forgive us for the ways in which we add to the suffering of this world. We do not like to be here—a place of grief and despair, at the foot of the cross, face to face with state-sanctioned violence. And yet, here is where we are. So forgive us, and then use us for your good.

Gratefully we pray. Amen.

Declaration of Forgiveness

The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting. I declare to you, in the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven. May the God of mercy, who forgives us all our sins, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Passing of the Peace (Please remain seated)

Leader: May the Peace of Christ be with you.

Prayer of Illumination**

Holy God,

Scripture tells us there was a lot of shouting on your crucifixion day. The crowds were yelling: "Take him away!" "Crucify him!" "This man claims he is King of the Jews!" And Mary cried out in grief. And you cried out in pain. It seems there was a lot of shouting. 2,000 years later, and we're still shouting, and the world is still filled with violence. The air feels so full of words, so full of hurt. We imagine you know the feeling. So today we ask that you quiet us in this moment. Quiet our minds. Quiet our insecurities and our distractions. Quiet our fears. Quiet us to hear your voice, and speak to us now. We are listening. Amen.

Affirmation of Faith**

We believe in the long night of the soul—the spaces and times when despair weighs on us like a blanket.

We believe those seasons of life are real, and that each and every one of us experiences them.

We refuse to believe that pain and suffering hold the last word; For we believe in Jesus of Nazareth

Who was betrayed and bloodied, so many years ago, And whose narrative didn't stop there.

So while we are here, Again, At the foot of the cross, Knee deep in despair, And face to face with pain,

We profess: We believe in the sunrise. We believe in the power of gathering together.

We believe that phone calls and hugs can make a difference.

We believe that life is not fair, but is overflowing with love.

We believe that we cannot go this path alone.

We believe that even here, even on this day, God is drawing near.

Amen.

Prayer of Illumination**

There are a million ways that you speak to us, God of the garden and God of the empty tomb.

You speak to us in rituals, both formal and organic—

In drops of water on foreheads, In vows said at the altar,

Through pieces of bread dipped in ordinary wine, and through shared candlelight on Christmas Eve.

You speak to us in nature—

Your artistry showing up in starry nights, In the smell of pine, in rushing water and in most every sunrise.

You speak to us through our relationships—

The comfort of a loved one, the laughter of our friends, the security of those who support us and cheer us on.

You speak to us in so many ways, and we are grateful for them all. However today, we just need one. That would be enough. So lean down and breathe life into these sacred texts. We are craving to hear your word like never before. We are craving to understand, to see ourselves in the story. We are craving proximity to you. There are a million ways that you speak to us. Today, we just need one. With hearts full of gratitude we pray, amen.

Old Testament Reading

Isaiah 25:6-9

<sup>6</sup> On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. <sup>7</sup> And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; <sup>8</sup> he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. <sup>9</sup> It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING
SPECIAL OFFERINGS
HUNGER • DISASTER • DEVELOPMENT

Around the world, millions of people lack access to sustainable food sources, clean water, sanitation, education, and opportunity. The three programs supported by One Great Hour of Sharing — Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, the Presbyterian Hunger Program, and Self-Development of People — all work in different ways to serve individuals and communities in need. From initial disaster response to ongoing community development, their work fits together to provide people with safety, sustenance, and hope. Received during the season of Lent, each gift to One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS) helps to improve the lives of people in these challenging situations. The Offering provides us a way to share God's love with our neighbors in need. In fact, OGHS is the single, largest way that Presbyterians come together every year to work for a better world. Please share your gift for this special offering, donations can be marked OGHS or One Great Hour of Sharing.

Rhythms of Grace: Sunday Morning Family Faith Formation

This is an outdoor Sunday time/place to help families walk with God and have Him teach us about the "unforced rhythms of Grace." It may be messy, it may get loud but we will find God's heart beat in the midst of it all.

Join us on Sundays from 9:15am-9:45am in the fenced play area. All ages are welcome (parents bring your kids, kids bring your parents, and bring the grandparents too)! *No meeting on Easter Sunday.

"Walk with me and work with me—watch how I do it. Learn the unforced rhythms of grace" Matthew 11:29

Family Easter Celebration

ALLELUIA BUTTERFLY

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come; the old life is gone; the new life has begun." 2
Corinthians 5:17

As we enter into Holy Week and our last week of Lent, we invite you to think about how you will emerge from this Lenten Season.

What will you leave behind as you embrace the Resurrection of Christ once again?

What are you looking forward to in this post Easter season?

What growth have you noticed in your own life?

Take time to think about these things.

When you are ready, we ask you to bring your butterfly (on the backside of this page) to new life! You can color your butterfly, add words, add paint, or even glitter. The possibilities are endless.

When you are finished decorating your butterfly, please cut it out and bring it to worship on Easter Sunday where you will be able to add it to our Easter cross.
