Thoughts for Reflection

*There shall always be the Church and the world;
And the heart of man;
Shivering and fluttering between them, choosing and chosen,
Valiant, ignoble, dark and full of light;
Swinging between Hell Gate and Heaven Gate.
And the Gates of Hell shall not prevail.
Darkness now, then light.*

- TS Eliot

Welcome

Chiming of the Hour

Prelude "Faith of Our Fathers" arr. G. Young

Call to Worship

Our cries of joy join the anthems of the universe.
We gather to lift our praise to the God who gives us voice.
We bring the prayers which have echoed in our hearts all week long.
We gather as the children of God, our joy unbroken in God's love.
Let our joy resound through singing,
teaching and reflecting on the word.
Let us worship God!

* Hymn #394 "Christ Is Made the Sure Foundation"
Westminster Abbey

Call to Confession

The Letter of 1John reminds us, "If we say we are without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sin, God who is faithful and just will forgive us and cleans us from all unrighteousness. Realizing that we are all in need of God's grace, let's turn our hearts to God as we join together in the prayer of confession...

Prayer of Confession

Almighty God, this morning, we remember that by the power of your Spirit, we have experienced broken lives made whole, old wounds of alienation healed over, and tired spirits rejuvenated with new vision. We are indeed grateful for the purpose and possibilities you have placed before us. Yet there are times when doubt has overcome hope, apathy has replaced commitment, and cynicism has prevailed over trust. Forgive us those times, we pray...
(Silent Prayer)
In the name of Jesus we pray. Amen.

Promise of Grace

As far as the east is from the west, that's how far God removes our sin from us. Friends, hear and believe the good news: in Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.
Thanks be to God!

* Gloria Patri (Hymn #581)
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

* Affirmation of Faith (Nicene Creed)
We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

* Doxology (Hymn #606)
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here below; praise him above, ye heavenly host; praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayer of Dedication

Prayer of Illumination
Gracious God, Living Word, as you revealed yourself to Mary that Easter morning, so reveal yourself to us. By the power of your Spirit, give each of us faith, that hearing your Word we, too, may proclaim, "I have seen the Lord!" Amen.

New Testament Lesson Romans 8:28-38 (NT page 148)
8 We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. ²⁹ For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn within a large family. ³⁰ And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified. ³¹ What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? ³² He who did not withhold his own Son but gave him up for all of us, how will he not with him also give us everything else? ³³ Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. ³⁴ Who is to condemn? It is Christ who died, or rather, who was raised, who is also at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us. ³⁵ Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will affliction or distress or persecution or famine or nakedness or peril or sword? ³⁶ As it is written, “For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep to be slaughtered.” ³⁷ No, in all these things we are more than victorious through him who loved us. ³⁸ For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers,

Anthem "Sweet By and By" J. Webster & F. Bennett

Old Testament Lesson Genesis 50:15-21 (OT page 46)
¹⁵ Realizing that their father was dead, Joseph’s brothers said, “What if Joseph still bears a grudge against us and pays us back in full for all the wrong that we did to him?” ¹⁶ So they approached Joseph, saying, “Your father gave this instruction before he died, ¹⁷ ‘Say to Joseph: I beg you, forgive the crime of your brothers and the wrong they did in harming you.’ Now therefore please forgive the crime of the servants of the God of your father.” Joseph wept when they spoke to him. ¹⁸ Then his brothers also wept, fell down before him, and said, “We are here as your slaves.” ¹⁹ But Joseph said to them, “Do not be afraid! Am I in the place of God? ²⁰ Even though you intended to do harm to me, God intended it for good, in order to preserve a numerous people, as he is doing today. ²¹ So have no fear; I myself will provide for you and your little ones.” In this way he reassured them, speaking kindly to them.
