Prayer of Preparation

Gracious God, we've come for a variety of reasons: to find hope and healing, to give our children, grandchildren and families hope and direction, to discover a place of love and acceptance, and to live out your call in our lives. Today we ask for courage and strength to reach beyond ourselves in order to truly become part of the kingdom of God. Most of all, today we come to give you honor and glory by giving you all of our hearts, our souls and our minds. Have your way in our lives and we will do our best to follow you. Amen.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

God of love, you have spoken your Word to us and in us, but so often we have not listened to you. We have not been mindful of your presence or attentive to your voice. Have mercy on us, O God. Give us open ears and open hearts that we might listen and follow. We humbly offer to you now our silent prayers of confession... (Silent Prayer)

In the name of Jesus we pray. Amen.

Thanks be to God!

Trinity welcomes Rev. Dr. John White

Rev. Dr. John E. White is a retired Presbyterian Minister. He was Ordained on October 11, 1981, in the Pittsburgh Presbytery and earned a Doctor of Ministry Degree from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary in 2009. Has also served at Princeton Theological Seminary and Columbia Theological Seminary as Vice President and Dean of Student Life as well as having served as Pastor of several congregations and in other service in the larger church.

Rev. White stated, "I have enjoyed the privilege of serving as the pastor of several congregations and as a senior administrator at three of our presbyterian-related theological seminaries. However, the highlight of my experiences in the PCUSA was when I met my wife, Alicia, when we were both serving as commissioners at the General Assembly that was held in Denver, CO in 2003. I retired from the work as the Dean of Student Life and VP of Student Relations at the end of December 2021. Throughout this entire time in ministry, I have sought to be actively involved in both presbytery and in local congregations."
