Thoughts for Preparation

"The moment you wake up each morning, all your wishes and hopes for the day rush at you like wild animals. And the first job each morning consists in shoving it all back; in listening to that other voice, taking that other point of view, letting that other, larger, stronger, quieter life come flowing in."

- CS Lewis

Call to Worship	Bill Butler
	Our cries of joy join the anthems of the universe.
	We gather to lift our praise to the God who gives us voice.
	We bring the prayers which have echoed in our hearts all week long.
	We gather as the children of God, our joy unbroken in God's love.
	Let our joy resound through singing, teaching and reflecting on the word.
	Let us worship God!
* Hymn #625	"How Great Thou Art"	Swedish Melody
Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Gracious and loving God, You are our God. Earnestly we seek you—and yet we confess that we often seek many other things first. Our souls thirst for you, but we try to satisfy that thirst with busyness, distraction, success, and control. We confess that our prayers can become hurried words, lists of requests, or duties to complete, rather than moments of communion with you.

Forgive us, O God. Restore in us a deeper hunger for your presence. Teach us again how to rest in you, to listen for you, to delight in you. In your steadfast love, receive us. In your mercy, renew us. In your Spirit, draw us close...

(Silent Prayers of Confession)

In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
